

regular adjournment at noon. If we get that message at eleven-thirty, we will probably keep in session until about twelve-thirty, in other words, to give you about an hour after all of the bill drafts have been delivered to the senators' offices to have you, you know, make your decisions about what to introduce, what not to introduce, to get cosigners, all of those sort of things. So we will try to accommodate you so that any bills that you have, you do actually have time to get introduced, but if you run much beyond that time limit, you may be shut out. So just be aware that you need to get your bills introduced today.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Withem. Are there now any messages, reports or announcements?

CLERK: Yes, Madam President. Reference report referring LBs 426 through 470, and LRs 27, 28, and 29. A communication from the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. That will be on file in the Clerk's Office. And two Attorney General Opinions; one to Senator Kristensen and the second to Senator Robinson. (See pages 370-74 of the Legislative Journal.) That is all that I have, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. We now turn to introduction of new bills.

CLERK: Madam President, new bills. (Read LBs 651-662 for the first time by title. See pages 375-76 of the Legislative Journal.) That's all I have at this time, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. We turn now to a motion to adopt permanent rules, and the Chair recognizes Senator Bromm. Senator.

SENATOR BROMM: Madam President, I am sorry. I was engaged in a conversation. Are there any further amendments pending on the rules to take up?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: There is one further amendment pending. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Madam President, Senator Chambers would move to amend. (See Chambers amendment on page 377 of the Legislative Journal.)
